

Recap of Library Census Meeting

December 18, 2019

- Met with Director Duckworth
- In process of applying for Census grant to possibly purchase additional laptops to assist residents in completing census information
- Will be available to go into community to assist residents in completing their census info.
- Residents are able to use the library computers to apply for census jobs and complete census information
- Will create a census button on library web page and will link it to University Park census web
- Will check with library IT person to ensure they have the most up-to-date internet security
- Scheduled a census training for January 3, 2020, 10 AM to 1:00 PM. Contacted Cory Stevenson to see if someone from the census is available for the training.
- We will partner with the library and GSU on the King Celebration on January 20th. Looking to have someone speak about the census. Director Duckworth will speak with the person in charge of the activity to see how many persons could speak and when. (Elbert Shaw is looking into asking Robin Kelly and/or State Rep Anthony DeLuca)
- Library has an event called Cotton Club in a Box the last of March. We will partner with library to possibly have it on April 1st and promote the event at a time to listen to jazz, have light refreshments and complete the census. The party will be 6:30 PM to 8:30 PM.
- Forwarded info on Census Scams to be shared with readers of material created by the library
