

Dear Military Partners,

I would like to first thank you for your willingness to establish partnerships with us toward our recruiting efforts. We are currently in the process of working within Comcast to open a number of positions over the course of 2013. With that said we would like to get a head start on selecting quality military candidates for these openings. The following list represents locations where we are anticipating need. The list is currently comprehensive but will continue to grow every week with new openings and new locations. If you have any candidates that may be interested please send us their contact info (name and phone number).

Thank you
