Construction Industry Service Corporation

Programs
Apprenticeship
Construction Union

Don't know where to start?
Looking for a great career?

About Cisco

Join the Education-to-Careers Program, please call Joanne Ryan at (630) 472-9411 or email
joinme@cisco.org

For more information to learn more about and anywhere else that interests one,

Get your today by mailing in the coupon below

Northwestern Illinois

through sincere efforts, desire and

Create your own future, Apprenticeship

Northwestern Illinois

of union construction in

Create your own future, Apprenticeship

Union

Constructions, 800 union contractors and 140,000 union

Labor-Management Organization, Section

The Construction Industry Service Corporation

About Cisco

We've got it?

Need more information?
What is an Apprentice?

Get Started?

What do I need to know?

Requirements vary from trade to trade, but many require:

- High School Diploma or GED
- Certificate
- Apprenticeship
- Pre-apprenticeship
- Pass the Apprenticeship Tests
- Intermediate License
- Welding License
- Safety Class Certification
- A44 Certification
- ITI Certification
- 40-hour OSHA Training
- First Aid
- CPR
- LPA, EWP,

Build Your Future Apprenticeship Guide: One Workbook for Apprenticeship or OSHA's

Requirements for each trade can be found on

- Pre-apprenticeship
- apprenticeship
- Apprenticeship Guide
- One Workbook

Why Choose a Career in Construction?

Order yours with the coupon on this brochure.